

ISD 406 : Capstone II

The student refines program generated in Capstone I and responds to issues in the program as the basis for design development of a capstone design project. The student develops project documents, presentation materials and presents the project to a jury of peers and professionals.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

ISD 405