

MAT 121 : Math For Teaching & Learning II

This course provides a mathematical treatment of the fundamental concepts of problem solving, reasoning, uncertainty, data analysis, technology, geometry, and developmentally appropriate strategies and activities as they relate to elementary mathematics curriculum. This course is limited to childhood & early childhood/middle childhood education majors.

Credits 3